

The Christie M. Williams RACE FOR AWARENESS

The Christie M. Williams Race for Awareness honors the life and legacy of Bay Area native Christie Williams. Diagnosed with Addison's disease, a chronic adrenal condition, Christie lost her battle in March of 2009. The proceeds benefit the National Adrenal Diseases Foundation (NADF) in Christie's name. NADF and Alpha Phi Foundation are partnering to educate on Addison's disease and living with it.
